

LAURA FLYNN

Laura Flynn is the owner of Laura Jean, a unique denim shop which opened in July of this year. Laura Jean is a high-end boutique with 18 designers and approximately 51 different styles of men's and women's jeans to choose from. They have the largest selection on the island, assuring great fits for many different body shapes. Sizes range from 24-38. Laura takes pride in her customer service with personalized attention to make sure each person gets the look they are searching for. Laura Jean was voted one of the top ten places to shop in the Mosaic News' (a Salve Regina publication) September edition. Laura is a volunteer for Child and Family Services and has lived in Middletown for the past six years.
